Overview

Founded in 1992, Dacheng is one of the first partnership law firms established in China and today one of the largest. With more than 9,000 lawyers in over 50 offices across China, we are able to provide the full spectrum of legal services to our clients and boast strong and leading practices in almost all practice areas.

Internationally, by collaborating with Dentons, one of the world's largest global law firms with more than 170 offices in 80+ countries and regions, as well as the Nextlaw Referral Network, which has member law firms spanning more countries than any other legal referral network, we offer clients the benefit of more than 30,000 experienced lawyers in more than 185 countries and regions who are in and of the communities where clients want to do business or resolve a dispute.

Professionals

Dacheng has a total staff of over 10,000, including over 9,000 practicing lawyers.

Most of our lawyers are graduates of leading law schools in China and around the world. Many also bring rich experience from renowned international law firms and possess additional expertise in accounting, taxation, finance, international trade, construction engineering, and business management.

Our lawyers providing foreign-related legal services are fluent in not only English, but also other foreign languages such as French, Japanese, Korean, Russian, and Mongolian, with professional expertise widely recognized in the legal industry. In year 2019, 57 Dacheng lawyers were listed in the inaugural National Talent Pool of 1,000 Foreign-Related Lawyers recognized and announced by the PRC Ministry of Justice, making us the single law firm with the highest number of inclusions nationwide. Moreover, in the Foreign-Related Lawyers Talent Pool announced by the Beijing Lawyers Association, 68 of our colleagues based in Beijing office were also listed, reinforcing our leading position in Beijing.

Expertise

As a large full-service law firm, Dacheng offers a broad range of legal services covering both contentious and non-contentious matters. Through years of innovation, improvement, reform, and specialized practice, we have ensured and maintained high quality and standards of our professional services and offerings.

We have always stayed at the forefront as one of the leading law firms ranging from traditional legal services to emerging practice areas, such as Corporate and M&A, Compliance and Risk Management, Government Policies and State-owned Assets Supervision, Employment and Labor, Cross-Border Investment and Trade, Bankruptcy, Restructuring and Insolvency, Dispute Resolution, Criminal Law, Real Estate, Construction and Energy, Capital Markets, Banking & Finance, as well as IP and Technology Innovation.

Network

Dacheng was the first Chinese law firm to pursue a strategic path of scaled expansion. In 2004, Dacheng launched its inaugural five-year development plan. In 2007, it took a pioneering step by establishing a global legal service network, positioning itself as a driving force behind the scaled growth of Chinese law firms.

Domestically, Dacheng has built a comprehensive presence across the country. In addition to covering all provincial capitals, we have strategically established offices in economically developed regions such as the Yangtze River Delta and the Pearl River Delta, as well as in key coastal cities, from multiple perspectives including economic development, industry layout, and evolving legal demand. Today, in addition to the Beijing head office, Dacheng operates in more than 50 offices across China, making us the first law firm to achieve full coverage across all provinces, autonomous regions, and centrally administered municipalities of China. This extensive network enables seamless multi-location coordination and efficient client services among our colleagues, and drives the ongoing development of our service platform.

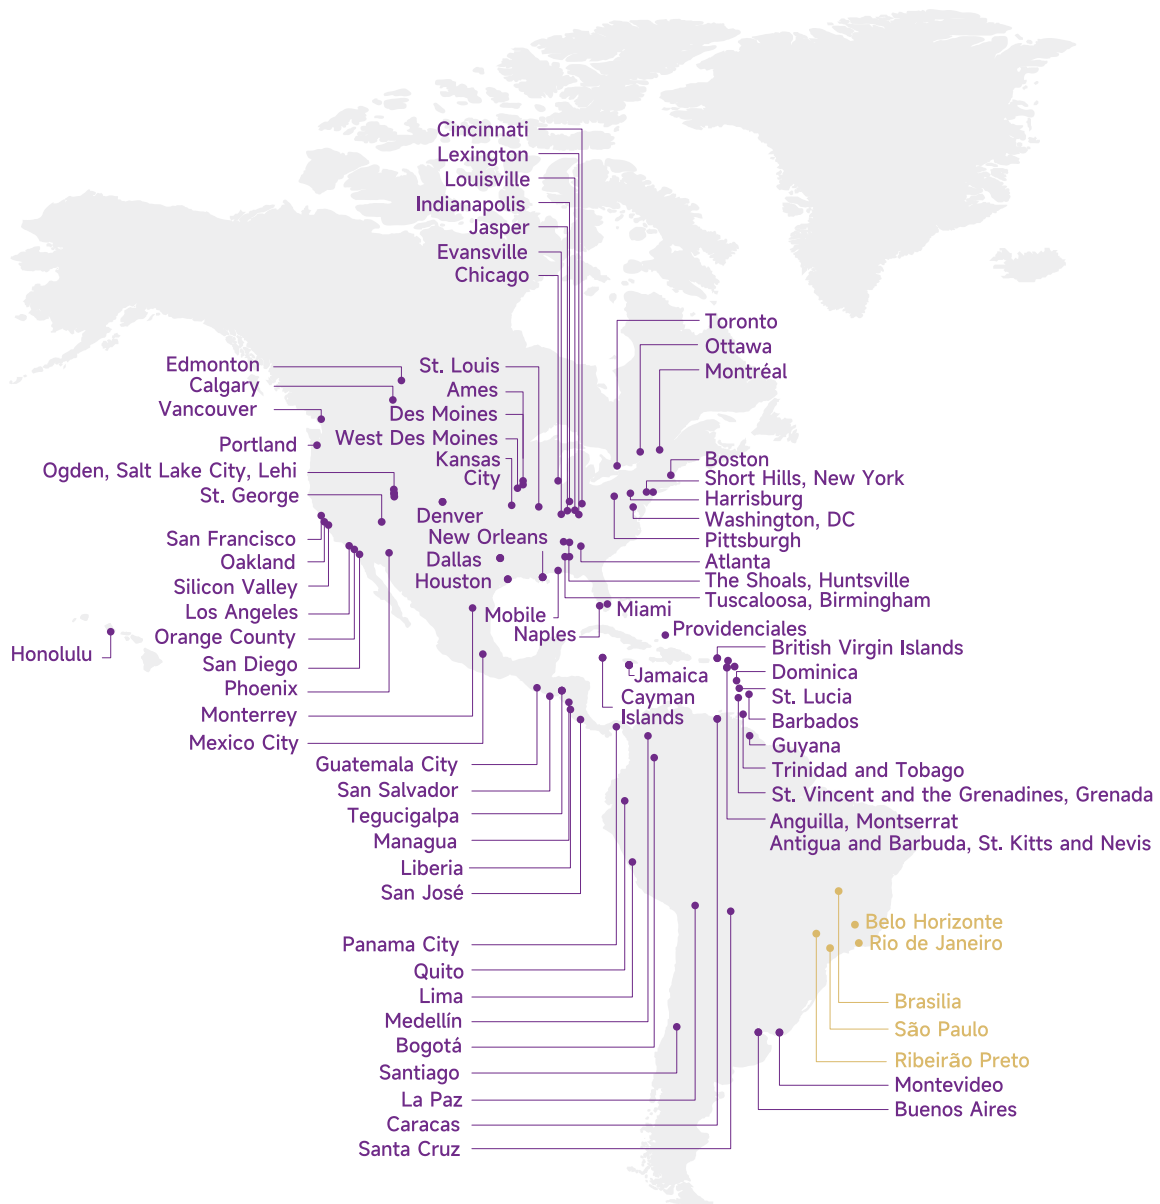

Internationally, by collaborating with Dentons, one of the world's largest global law firms with more than 170 offices in 80+ countries and regions, as well as the Nextlaw Referral Network, which has member law firms spanning more countries than any other legal referral network, we offer clients the benefit of more than 30,000 experienced lawyers in more than 185 countries and regions who are in and of the communities where clients want to do business or resolve a dispute.

Honors and Awards

Dacheng has stood at the forefront of China's legal profession ever since its establishment. On January 1, 1994, Legal Daily featured Dacheng as the largest partnership law firm in China at that time in its "China's Tops in Politics and Laws" column. In 1998, Dacheng was honored by the Ministry of Justice as one of the first "Ministerial-level Model Law Firms". In 2005, Dacheng was awarded one of the "National Excellent Law Firms" in the inaugural selection by the All China Lawyers Association, and has since been repeatedly acknowledged. Over the years, our various offices across the country have consistently set industry benchmarks and received widespread recognitions, honors and awards at local and national levels.

Supported by an advanced management system, streamlined governance structure, and a specialized practice model, Dacheng has consistently earned top-tier recognitions from various legal media and rankings, reflecting sustained confidence in our expertise, service delivery, and quality standards.

Corporate and M&A

Corporate and M&A services represent one of our core practice areas in which we offer a breadth of all-around corporate legal services tailored to meet the evolving needs of our clients across various sectors, based on our deep understanding of both domestic and international laws, regulations, policies, and legal procedures, as well as our remarkably extensive experience in M&A.

In recent years, we have helped numerous well-known domestic and international clients, including large enterprises and public companies, close various complex deals such as M&A, mixed-ownership reforms, and cross-border acquisitions. Our lawyers have served as lead counsel for a range of significant domestic and international deals, leveraging their extensive experience, profound understanding of Chinese legal applicability and regulatory environment, and integrated knowledge of business, industries, finance, and taxation to guide clients to successful completions. Our involvement in both domestic and cross-border M&A spans various sectors, including finance, manufacturing, real estate, high technology, infrastructure, electronics, pharmaceuticals, and services. Notably, we excel in helping clients resolve issues and close deals in complex legal and regulatory environments, and we have garnered high praise from clients for our strong, effective teamwork and diligent, responsible approach to work in many complex M&A cases with substantial targets.

Our lawyers in the corporate and M&A practice area have established effective communication with relevant regulatory agencies throughout their long-standing practice and have been invited to participate in several legislative research initiatives related to M&A. Additionally, we have built harmonious working relationships with numerous domestic and international investment banks, accounting firms, appraisal agencies, and other intermediary organizations.

We have strong expertise in the corporate and M&A practice area. For several consecutive years, we have consistently been recognized in the annual rankings published by renowned legal media and rating agencies, including Chambers and Partners, ALB, Legal 500, asialaw Profiles, IFLR1000, and LEGALBAND, both internationally and domestically.

Government Policies & State-owned Assets Supervision

Government Policies & State-owned Assets Supervision

Our services on government policies and state-owned assets supervision represent one of our key areas of expertise. The team actively addresses diverse service needs across administrative domains, stays attuned to national policy developments, delivering comprehensive, high-quality, efficient, one-stop tailored legal services.

SOEs are the backbone of China's national economy. The CPC Central Committee and the State Council highly value state-owned assets and the SOEs' reform. In this context, we consistently contribute our wisdom and expertise to SOE compliance, supporting their law-abiding operations domestically and internationally.

We are committed to helping establish China's socialist rule of law system and building China into a socialist rule-of-law country. We also strive to contribute to the modernization of China's system and capacity for governance, and advancing the rule of law in China.

We have maintained long-term cooperation on government policies and state-owned assets supervision with thousands of clients within China, including multiple national ministries, directly affiliated institutions of the State Council, large state-owned enterprises, public institutions, and social organizations.

Taxation

Taxation is one of Dacheng's traditional legal service areas and a domain where the firm holds a unique advantage in today's complex business environment. Dacheng has long provided specialized tax legal services for domestic and overseas clients through a team of excellent lawyers with strong professional skills and rich practical experience.

Our Strengths

Dacheng's experienced lawyers are not only local legal experts but also can swiftly assemble cross-regional, cross-disciplinary teams to provide clients with timely, accurate, efficient, and high-quality specialized and comprehensive legal services.

Many, with extensive expertise in specific practice areas, have been appointed consultants by State Council departments, and provincial and municipal governments. They have actively contributed to significant national legislative initiatives and amendments, and are invited by governments, academia, enterprises and media outlets to deliver professional speeches.

The scholarly contributions cover various practice areas (informative papers, books). Many have been appointed as researchers, part-time professors, or visiting professors at prestigious law schools and research institutions, by virtue of their high professional reputation.

Dacheng is one of the large Chinese law firms with exceptional capabilities in dispute resolution. We have long focused on researching the realities and development trends of dispute resolution in China, directly participating in legislative activities at all levels, and maintaining excellent business relationships and communication channels with judicial departments, arbitration institutions, and mediation agencies at all levels. Leveraging our local resources in China, we consistently find better solutions to various complex issues faced by our clients.

The Dacheng Dispute Resolution Practice Group has been providing high-quality professional services in litigation, arbitration, negotiation, and mediation for both domestic and foreign clients, focusing on cutting-edge research topics in dispute resolution practices and theories. With a deep understanding of judicial reasoning, the Dacheng Dispute Resolution Practice Group takes into account the differences in judicial practices, cultures, and business customs worldwide in addition to the laws of litigation and arbitration. Our sharp insights and extensive practical experience enable us to offer practical, efficient, and economical solutions for all legal matters and potential risks.

The Dacheng Dispute Resolution Practice Group excels in handling significant litigation and arbitration cases and emergencies that have broad implications and pose challenges, covering all areas of law, including civil, commercial, and administrative matters across major domestic and foreign industries. We have established a rapid coordination mechanism and service advantages that transcend fields and regions.

The Dacheng Dispute Resolution Practice Group is adept at strategically managing litigation and arbitration cases accepted by domestic courts at all levels and commercial arbitration institutions. By leveraging technical resources, we customize responsive strategies to provide our clients with a comprehensive suite of services, including strategy demonstration, pre-litigation investigation, application for preservation (evidence/property/conduct), the initiation of litigation/arbitration procedures, confrontation simulation, participation in court trials, trend prediction, mediation and reconciliation facilitation, and execution follow-ups. We faithfully protect the reputation and interests of our clients.

In addition to assisting our clients in winning disputes, we also adeptly utilize our wisdom and knowledge to facilitate reconciliations and minimize dispute resolution costs for our clients. Moreover, we are committed to providing clear and straightforward advice to our clients. With both international perspectives and local experience, we strive to help our clients present their arguments in the most effective and pragmatic way possible and maximize their interests.

The Dacheng Dispute Resolution Practice Group has earned high praise from clients both domestically and internationally for providing creative services with high proficiency. We have received widespread recognition in the industry and have been honored with numerous domestic and international awards. Real Estate, Construction & Energy

Our firm is dedicated to five core sectors: real estate, construction, infrastructure, energy and natural resources, and environmental sustainability, which encompasses new energy initiatives, carbon peaking, and carbon neutrality. Our team of multidisciplinary lawyers combines specialized knowledge with robust legal expertise, enabling us to maintain a leading position in traditional sectors while also excelling in emerging areas. By aligning our efforts with national and industry advancements as well as market dynamics, we engage in comprehensive legal research and employ cross-regional, interdisciplinary teams. This approach allows us to deliver timely, accurate, and high-quality solutions that are tailored to meet the evolving needs of our clients.

Real Estate

Through our comprehensive observation of urbanization trends in China, we have developed a deep understanding of the real estate lifecycle, allowing us to effectively adapt to the evolving practices within the industry. Our legal expertise is dedicated to assisting a diverse array of stakeholders, including governmental entities, leading developers, commercial operators, hotel management firms, project companies, financial institutions, and both domestic and international investment funds, by providing tailored solutions that meet their unique needs.

Energy, Natural Resources and Environment

Our legal services encompass a broad range of sectors, including conventional energy resources such as oil, gas, LNG, coalbed methane, hydropower, coal, and nuclear power. We also specialize in minerals, particularly non-ferrous metals and non-metals, as well as emerging sectors like wind, solar, and carbon trading. In addition, we address critical environmental challenges, including pollution control, biodiversity conservation, climate resilience, and resource management. By thoroughly analyzing client business models and remaining vigilant regarding regulatory trends—encompassing political, economic, and ecological shifts—we ensure that our legal strategies are well-aligned with our clients' needs. Through collaboration across various practice areas, we are committed to delivering integrated solutions of the highest value.

Construction

We draw upon our regulatory expertise and case-specific insights to safeguard client interests in complex construction disputes. Our services extend beyond litigation; we offer tailored legal support to contractors, design institutions, cost consultants, and intermediaries at every project phase.

Environmental Protection, Carbon Peaking and Carbon Neutrality

We have established ourselves as pioneers in providing legal services focused on carbon peaking and neutrality, offering guidance to exchanges and governmental bodies on carbon trading frameworks. Our environmental practice encompasses policy advice for regulatory entities, compliance assistance for corporate Environmental, Social, and Governance (ESG) systems, and dispute resolution, a service recognized by China's Supreme People's Court. For enterprises, we oversee domestic and international carbon asset development, trading, and regulatory compliance, providing one of the few comprehensive dual-carbon legal platforms in the industry.

Infrastructure

Our legal team is dedicated to providing expert advisory services to national ministries, including the Ministry of Housing and Urban-Rural Development and the Ministry of Natural Resources, as well as to local governments and distinguished enterprises in both the state-owned and private sectors. We specialize in enhancing integrated investment, construction, and operational processes for infrastructure projects, comprehensively addressing all elements from surveying and design through to bidding, supervision, financing, and compliance. For individual projects, we offer both tailored services and comprehensive end-to-end solutions. Our offerings encompass feasibility planning, land acquisition, contract review, procurement guidance, dispute resolution, and post-completion assessments.

Capital Markets

Dacheng is one of the earliest law firms in China to obtain qualifications for securities legal services. Our business spans the entire capital market chain. With our strategy of "global reach, local insight" and our extensive experience, we have consistently played a significant leading role in the practice area of capital markets practice.

Over the years, we have consistently focused on the development of legal services related to domestic and international IPOs, corporate restructuring and reform, M&A, private equity and investment funds, refinancing for public companies, and asset securitization. Additionally, we have consistently maintained close communications with domestic and overseas securities regulatory authorities, stock exchanges, and other relevant organizations.

Dacheng enjoys an outstanding reputation and extensive experience in the field of capital markets. As a leading provider of legal services in capital markets, we are well-positioned to offer our clients one-stop, high-quality legal services covering the full industry chain.

Our professional teamwork, precise division of labor, and proven track record of success have earned us widespread recognition from our clients and a good reputation within the industry.

We are committed to continuing our deep engagement in the construction and infrastructure sector and embracing challenges with a forward-looking approach, striving to lead the development of legal services in this sector. We will always uphold a client-centered philosophy and provide robust legal support for our clients in the domestic and international construction and infrastructure sectors.

Manufacturing

A photograph of a textile factory. In the foreground, several large spools of white thread are mounted on a machine. The spools are arranged in a row, and the thread is visible as thin lines extending from them. The background shows the industrial structure of the factory, including metal beams and other machinery, slightly out of focus.

With global geopolitical changes, pressures to achieve carbon neutrality, and the accelerated application of AI automation technology, the manufacturing industry is facing a new round of structural challenges and opportunities. As an important pillar industry of China's national economy, manufacturing companies are dealing with multiple issues such as green transformation, supply chain reshaping, rising labor costs and increased compliance risks.

Relying on its deep industry understanding and cross-regional teamwork capabilities, Dacheng Law Offices serves a variety of clients including state-owned manufacturing groups, private industrial enterprises, foreign-funded high-end manufacturing, etc., supporting them to seize the initiative in the new phase of industrial policies, fiscal and tax reforms, environmental protection standards, employment compliance, overseas sanctions, ESG review and other issues.

Faced with the trends of "high-endization of equipment, globalization of supply chains, and flexibility of employment", Dacheng's manufacturing legal service team has accumulated extensive practical experience in the fields of automotive parts, intelligent manufacturing, consumer goods, heavy industry equipment, new materials, life sciences, etc., and provides precise support in enterprise structure construction, factory relocation integration, contract negotiation, compliance investigation, dispute resolution, etc.

Services for Party and Government Organs

We provide legal services for Party and government organs, with a profound respect for the rule of law and a sense of responsibility for public affairs. Additionally, we have a deep understanding of the operational mechanisms and legal regulations of various Party and government organs, including organs of the Communist Party of China, state institutions, the Chinese People's Political Consultative Conference, and other political parties. Our services cover various aspects such as legal consultant services to the government, administrative reconsideration, administrative litigation, consulting on the formulation of regulations, and the compliance review of decisions, with the goal of providing legal support for Party and government organs to ensure the legitimacy, compliance, and efficiency of their various affairs.

Services for Charitable Organizations and Social Security Institutions

Our Public Services Sector Team focuses on supporting charitable organizations and social security institutions by providing legal advice and services. We closely monitor the updates and changes in social work regulations to offer compliance guidance to social communities, charitable organizations, social entities, and social security institutions, assisting them in resolving legal issues while ensuring comprehensive legal support for their social services. Our goal is to promote good deeds through legal principles, assist our clients in better fulfilling their social responsibilities, and facilitate the sustainable development of charitable initiatives and social security endeavors.

Our Public Services Sector Team consists of outstanding legal lawyers dedicated to providing comprehensive legal support and services for a wide range of public service institutions. With the Chinese system of socialist rule of law, public services involve Party and government organs, charitable organizations, social security institutions, social communities, mass organizations, and international organizations. Professional legal support is needed to ensure compliance in operations, the effective utilization of public resources, and social harmony and stability. Our Public Services Sector Team is committed to providing all-around and high-quality legal services, helping clients better fulfill their social responsibilities within the legal framework, and promoting the development of public undertakings. We consistently adhere to the philosophy of professionalism, responsibility, and innovation, striving to be a trustworthy legal partner for our clients. Our value to society is proven by our efficient legal support for public service institutions, and we are committed to fulfilling the five requirements set forth by the Ministry of Justice for lawyers, contributing to social progress, and serving the national economic and social development. We aspire to be exemplary lawyers for the Party and the people.

Services for Social Communities and Mass Organizations

Professional legal services for social communities, mass organizations, and other collective organizations are one of our core practice areas. We assist our clients in completing legal matters such as registration, organizational governance, and project compliance management, helping grassroots autonomous organizations to better perform their functions. Through close cooperation with our clients, we strive to encourage the active participation of social communities and mass organizations in social development and provide them with legal support that can promote their sustainable development.

Services for International Organizations

Our Public Services Sector Team is well-versed in the international legal framework and the operational mechanisms of international organizations. We provide all-around legal services such as legal advice, contract negotiation, and assistance in international cooperation to help international organizations smoothly conduct their legal affairs in China. With a deep understanding of the complexity of international law, we strive to ensure the smooth operations of international organizations in China by providing them with solid legal support.

Expertise

To ensure our practice and sector strategies remain forward-looking and closely aligned with national policies and market demands, we have established research centers focused on new and cutting-edge business areas. Drawing on our expertise in practices and sectors, we bring together specialized talent across relevant fields while employing technological tools to conduct targeted research on emerging market demands. This empowers us to conceive and incorporate innovative legal service solutions, enabling the swift and precise fulfillment of client needs and generating greater value for society.

The Belt and Road Research Center

The Belt and Road Initiative (BRI) represents China's pivotal international public offering to the global community and China's largest platform for international cooperation. Dacheng, as an international and comprehensive law firm, is committed to the open development strategy of "global reach, local insight" and has gained extensive legal service experience through long-term support for clients in their international ventures. At Dacheng, we have established the Belt and Road (B&R) Research Center to better serve China's economic development and opening up, meet the growing demand for legal services, and consolidate our legal services under BRI. With the formation of a one-stop legal service team, we aim to enhance our professional capabilities and service quality to support projects under BRI, create greater value for our clients, and contribute to the national efforts under BRI.

The B&R Research Center currently has over 1,330 members, and many of them are leading figures and experts in fields such as cross-border investment, project financing, M&A, construction and infrastructure, mining and energy, compliance management and dispute resolution. They embody our professional capabilities to provide all-around and meticulous services to Chinese enterprises and support the development of countries participating in the BRI. Our lawyers have been actively involved in significant projects invested by Chinese enterprises under BRI and have been consistently recognized in rankings by esteemed legal rating agencies such as Chambers and Partners and Legal 500.

The B&R Research Center provides legal services spanning a wide array of industries, including real estate, construction, manufacturing, mining, energy, telecom, media, finance, and technology. In addition, the B&R Research Center has 8 regional teams and 10 practice areas, effectively meeting the diverse needs of clients. The 8 regional teams include the Southeast Asia team (also covering ASEAN countries, Japan, and the Republic of Korea), the Central Asia team (also covering Mongolia and Russia), the West Asia and the Middle East team (also covering India, Sri Lanka, and Bangladesh), the Africa team, the Europe team (including Central and Eastern European countries), the Oceania team (Australia, New Zealand, and other Pacific islands), the North America team (the United States, Canada, and Mexico), and the Latin America team (Central and South American countries). The 10 practice areas include cross-border investment and M&A, international trade and maritime and admiralty law, overseas construction and infrastructure (including overseas industrial park construction), energy and resource development, IP and technology cooperation, finance and capital markets, non-performing assets and bankruptcy liquidation, compliance management and international sanctions, cross-border taxation and customs regulation, and cross-border dispute resolution.

Our lawyers at the B&R Research Center have strong expertise and rich experience. With such an exceptional team of lawyers, we are capable of providing integrated, around-the-clock, seamless cross-border legal support for our clients and offering the best solutions to any legal challenges our clients may encounter in various jurisdictions, serving as a trusted strategic partner for our clients.

Looking ahead, the B&R Research Center will continue to collaborate closely with our other specialized departments and our international partners to integrate professional resources and innovate our service models. We aim to deliver professional, unique, and competitive legal services and solutions to both new and existing clients, further enhance the quality of our legal services, and support the ongoing development under the Belt and Road Initiative.

Digital Business Research Center

The digital economy has emerged as the main economic form in the world amid the global wave of digital transformation and has become the core driving force for China's economic and social development. Data is one of the key elements of the digital economy. The combination of data and algorithms propels business model innovation and facilitates the development and iteration of innovative products and services. With the rapid advancement of regulations on data security, compliance, and development, corporate compliance and digital transformation have increasingly become the norm. The importance and urgency of understanding and analyzing issues related to digital services across various industries are growing daily. At Dacheng, we have established the Digital Business Research Center to promote knowledge sharing, experience exchange, and professional development in the digital transformation practice area, provide professional support and services to lawyers in this practice area, and improve our business structure and operational capabilities in this practice area.

The Digital Business Research Center serves as a platform for the integrated development of services and expertise in the digital transformation practice area. The center integrates our internal resources while also bringing in and expanding external ecosystems. It is committed to conducting continuous research on digital transformation legal services, launching competitive service models that are adapted to the specific characteristics of each sector and the preferences of clients, and developing integrated, one-stop solutions. Additionally, the center designs commercially viable solutions for the digital business of clients, leveraging its understanding of the needs of our clients to assist the clients in fully utilizing and developing their data resources and help them build trust in their brands in the business development process.

The Digital Business Research Center provides legal services spanning a wide array of industries, including real estate, construction, manufacturing, mining, energy, telecom, media, finance, and technology. Additionally, the center has several business segments, including data security and personal information protection, cross-border data transmission, corporate listing data compliance (including cybersecurity review), data asset transactions and data element projects, automotive industry data compliance, AI and algorithm supervision, and data security incident investigation and response. The center places a strong emphasis on data compliance and provides full-process legal services for data compliance in all fields, including data element application, the authorized use of public data, the establishment of personal information protection systems, data export risk assessment, cybersecurity multi-level protection filing, and cybersecurity review declaration. It meets all the needs of clients in the field of digital practice. Moreover, the center actively participates in the formulation of laws, regulations, and standards in the data field, supporting the guidance for the industry.

The Digital Business Research Center is also dedicated to developing data compliance legal solutions to meet the diverse needs of our clients. It has made great achievements in establishing a database of data-related laws and regulations, the analysis of countries and regions for establishing cross-border data transmission whitelist mechanisms, and providing law enforcement and compliance guidelines for illegal and irregular collection of personal information by apps, data security and personal information protection regulations and process guidelines, data analysis service agreement templates, and data asset compliance due diligence questionnaires.

Our lawyers at the Digital Business Research Center have strong expertise and rich experience. With such an exceptional team of lawyers, we are capable of providing integrated, around-the-clock, seamless data security and compliance legal support for our clients and offering the best solutions to any legal challenges our clients may encounter in various jurisdictions, serving as a trusted strategic partner for our clients.

Looking ahead, the Digital Business Research Center will continue to collaborate closely with our other specialized departments to integrate professional resources and innovate our service models. We aim to deliver professional, unique, and competitive legal services and solutions to both new and existing clients, further enhance the quality of our legal services, and support the ongoing development of data business.

Family Office Business Center

The Family Office Business Center specializes in family (enterprise) and wealth value management, offering a wide range of services including private wealth management, top-level structural design for families (enterprises), overall enhancement of family strength, family (enterprise) investment and financing for sustainable development, and crisis and dispute resolution. These services and capabilities are tailored to cater to all critical scenarios and essential needs in family (enterprise) and wealth value management concerning protection, administration, and inheritance.

The Family Office Business Center employs a practical family-centric approach and consistently prioritizes critical application scenarios in family (enterprise) and wealth value management in China. These scenarios are defined by management objectives, asset structures, tax identification, behavioral trends, and tool pathways. By leveraging a tool system focused on structural tools, financial instruments, identity allocation, intention arrangements, and family agreements, the center is dedicated to developing holistic value management solutions customized for all scenarios.

Drawing on our global service network, the Family Office Business Center has established a highly skilled professional service team specializing in addressing legal and tax matters on a global scale. Furthermore, leveraging a robust ecosystem of family (enterprise) and wealth value management services, the center seamlessly integrates domestic and international services, financial and non-financial services, as well as family and enterprise services. This integration enables the center to provide a comprehensive one-stop global service with specialized capabilities. As one of the top family wealth management law firms in China, we have developed a pragmatic and comprehensive platform for family symbiosis, reinforced with structural strength to align with the future.

Dacheng has consistently been recognized as a leading law firm with exceptional lawyers in the realm of family and private wealth management by leading global legal rating agencies for several consecutive years. Dacheng has been ranked in Private Client/Wealth Management (PRC Firms) by Chambers Greater China Region Guide for consecutive years, and also listed in the Private Wealth Law (PRC Firms) and Private Wealth Disputes sections of the Chambers High Net Worth Guide from 2024 to 2025. In 2025, Dacheng was honored as "Family Wealth Management Law Firm of the Year" at LEGALBAND China Law Awards, commended for "integrating legal and tax systems to build a legacy framework and safeguarding family wealth with a global vision".

Listed Company Disclosure Compliance Research Center

As China deepens capital market reforms and implements the registration-based IPO system, disclosure compliance and transparency in listed companies have become pivotal to corporate sustainability and investor protection. In response to the urgent market demand for professional and forward-looking compliance services, the Listed Company Disclosure Compliance Research Center was established. Bringing together seasoned securities lawyers, former regulatory experts, financial advisors, and industry practitioners, the Center focuses on end-to-end compliance management in disclosure and securities-related dispute resolution, with the aim to provide listed companies with one-stop legal support, from risk anticipation and regulatory framework development to crisis response.

Guided by the core philosophy of "Expertise Safeguarding Compliance, Knowledge Empowering Value", the Center analyzes domestic and international regulatory developments to identify potential risks in listed companies' disclosure. It offers comprehensive services, including regular disclosure advisory services, compliance review of periodic reports, strategic guidance on material event disclosures, and Environmental, Social, and Governance (ESG) disclosure advisory. When addressing regulatory inquiries, administrative penalties, or investor disputes, the Center utilizes its violation case database and AI-powered document review tools to develop targeted solutions. This helps listed companies effectively manage administrative investigations, civil litigation risks, and other disclosure-related challenges, and minimize legal and reputational consequences.

The Center is committed to fostering long-term compliance capabilities through executive training programs, compliance simulation exercises, and internal control optimization to facilitate listed companies in integrating compliance awareness into their corporate governance framework and establishing sustainable disclosure management systems. To strengthen the service ecosystem, the Center maintains close collaboration with regulators, stock exchanges, academic institutions, and media platforms to establish a "legal + industry + regulatory" dialogue platform for promoting two-way interaction between compliance best practices and policy research.

The Center has achieved remarkable results in disclosure compliance consulting, securities compliance investigations, securities violation penalties, and securities dispute resolution through its specialized labor of work and teamwork. It has provided comprehensive disclosure compliance services for numerous listed companies, financial institutions, and securities firms.

Moving forward, the Center will continue to focus on emerging disclosure challenges amid digital transformation and explore innovative solutions to help listed companies navigate complex regulatory environments with stability and foresight. In addition, it will contribute more professional expertise to promote high-quality development in the capital markets.
